Editorial

EDUNEWS is the endeavour to capture the moments of the journey of Education department in an academic year. In the present issue, the various activities held by the department in the past year are recounted. As we know, modern education system of India is drastically changing with new education policies and application of educational technologies in management of an educational institution. Therefore, our college also take steps to promote knowledge, understanding, skill, interest, attitude and critical thinking of students. The education department works a few in this direction and those are reflected in this issue.

In nutshell, I would like to thank all colleagues and students for their enormous support throughout the creation of this newsletter issue as an option for us to grasp those celebrated past events forever and to remember it in the future days.
